CLUB SONG

(Tune, "The Old Refrain")

With heart and hands we strive to do the best;
Our eyes upon the highest peak doth rest;
Honor and Culture both we have in view
Friendship and Loyalty and Courage,
too,
As onward up the path we daily go;
We falter much, our steps are often slow.
But for God's helping Grace we daily
pray;
His Hands for us will ever point the way.
So to our tasks we go without a fear--
We know "To labor is a pleasure" here;
A smile and song for all along the way
The Culture Club lives on from day to day.

A SOBERING THOUGHT

Sometime, when you're feeling important,
Sometime, when your ego's in bloom,
Sometime, when you take it for granted
You're the best qualified in the room;
Sometime, when you feel that your going
Would leave an unfillable hole,
Just follow this simple instruction
And see how it humbles your soul.

Take a bucket and fill it with water,
Put your hand in it, up to the wrist,
Pull it out, and the hole that's remaining
Is a measure of how you'll be missed.
You may splash all you please when you enter,
You can stir up the water galore,
But stop and you'll find in a minute
That it looks quite the same as before.

The moral of this quaint example
Is to do just the best that you can.
Be proud of yourself, but remember --
There is no Indispensable man.
